For Bennett Hall

Ground-Breaking Ceremony Takes Place on Saturday

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Rev. Joseph Bennett Memorial Hall on the grounds of the Campbell Congregational Church on W. Campbell Ave. will be held this Saturday at 10 a.m., Myron L. Fairchild, program chairman, announced this week.

The hall, which is planned to be used primarily as a community youth center, will honor the late Rev. Bennett, long-time Congregational minister here. The Rev. Bennett was active in youth work and was founder of the Cub Scout program in the United States.

Local Cub Scouts will take a leading part in the groundbreaking ceremonies, Fairchild reports, as will Mrs. Bennett, widow of the minister. Bennett, will speak at the program on his recollections of the minister who took such an active interest in the youth of the community.

Taking part also in the groundbreaking program will be George E. (Dobie) Jeffers, chairman of the building committee. Jeffers was also associated with the Rev. Bennett here in youth work.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Arthur Gillespie, of the Campbell Congregational Church and the benediction by the Rev. Corwin H. Olds, pastor of the church. Fairchild will act as master of ceremonies.

The ceremony was under the direction of Duane Beaubien, awards chairman, and an overflow crowd of 400 people jammed the auditorium. In addition to the Eagles, eight Scouts gained the Life Scout rank and five made Star Scout.

Seven troops were in attendance with Troop 31 leading the opening ceremony, Troop 35 putting on a stunt exhibition and Troop 47 conducting the closing. The attendance and advancement award went to Troop No. 5. The Rev. Herbert Johnson gave the invocation at the ceremony.

Apartments Get O.K., But Not Trailer Unit

Apartment houses fared better before the Planning Commission last Thursday night than a trailer rental unit.

The City Planners unanimously approved the plans for three apartment houses, totalling 78 units, but denied by a 5-2 vote the application for a use permit to operate a trailer court on Dillon Ave.

In one of the longest meetings on record (adjournment wasn't until 12:30 a.m.) the Planners waded through a two-page agenda that besides the apartment houses and trailer court requests, included requests for approval of zone changes, warehouses and commercial buildings as well as approval of new tracts.

The planners approved the plans draw by Bob Ferguson, local draftsman, for a 54-unit apartment on Dunster Drive (at the rear of Lee Bros. Market) in the Ampex subdivision filed by W. L. Phillips and okayed Ferguson's drawn plans on two other smaller apartments, one for a 12-unit between Hamilton and Rosemary Lane filed by the Speed Building Corporation and the other for 4-three unit apartments also in the Ampex subdivision.

The request for a use permit by Mrs. Gladys Crump to operate a trailer rental unit at 186 S. Dillon Ave., was denied, although two planners, Homer Hyde and Kenneth Priestley favored it. Mrs. Crump was represented by John Thorne, San Jose attorney, at the hearing.

The planners also denied the variance request of Dudley D. Hoefler to allow the construction of a home on property at 174 Bland Ave. The lot was smaller than the required square footage.

After a property owner, A. C. Goulding, 361 San Jose-Los Gatos Road, had lodged a strong protest, the Planners postponed action on the request of G and P Equipment Rental for a use permit to operate their business at 437 N. San Jose-Los Gatos Road. The request was taken under advisement until February 21 in order for the applicant and Goulding to get together to work out a possible agreement.

The Planners in another action approved a zone change from single family residential to commercial and multiple-family residential for property on the south side of Winchester Road and extending along the proposed continuation of Hamilton Ave. The request for the change was made by J. M. Dahl and S. Prestigiacomo.

Continued also were the requests for approval of plans for a commercial building submitted by Marian Nimerick at Winchester Road and Rincon and for administration buildings and corporation yard for Sanitation District No. 4.

Plans submitted for the automatic car wash at Latimer and Winchester were denied as submitted but were turned over to Commissioner Jim Tomlinson to check further the noise factor. The Planners left the way open for the plans to be resubmitted.

Plans for a retail lumber yard at 640 E. Hamilton Ave., submitted by O'Neill and Ellis were approved and at the request of Ed Johnson, president of the Trojan Construction Co., the subdivision map of Quito Rancho was withdrawn to be resubmitted at a future meeting.

Another set of plans okayed was for the Hunt Construction Co. It was reported that a Drive-In Dairy is to be built at the location on S. Winchester Road.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, submitted a recommendation that a 15-foot minimum front yard setback be allowed on property affected by street widening. He also submitted a 9-page report on the procedure for establishing a master plan for Campbell which the fagged-out directors took home with them to peruse at their leisure.

Council Protests Request of Area To Join San Jose

Because the area in question extended into Campbell's sphere of influence and is contrary to the gentlemen's agreement between San Jose and Campbell, the City Council on Monday objected to the request of Paul Gallagher that land owned by him be annexed to the City of San Jose.

The strip would extend virtually from Dry Creek Road past Casey Road just south of McGlincey Lane and, as Mayor John M. Chargin pointed out, would shut off this section from Campbell.

On the other hand, the Council agreed to allow a few lots north of Dutard Ave. to join Campbell, provided the real estate firm involved (Akins realty) would bear the expense of the undertaking. The area is north of the new "line" set between Campbell and San Jose. A Campbell strip now does extend to the area, however, and the real estate firm wanted to avoid splitting lots between cities.

In other actions the City Council:

(1) Approved the variance granted by the Planning Commission to allawNorman K. Husted to have 50-feet in width cul-de-sac streets rather than 56.

(2) Referred to the city attorney the problem presented by General Petroleum concerning the drainage on the street at the Mobilgas Service Station at San Tomas Road and Campbell Ave.

As this station was separate from the Los Ranchitos subdivision, it was explained, it was not involved in the storm drainage project for the tract. It was emphasized by council members that the storm drainage problem for the city would never be solved without a bond issue.

(3) Wih Councilman Richard Morton dissenting, passed a resolution favoring legislation that would curtail the so-called crime comic books. Morton pointed out

ALL JACKED UP AND NO PLACE TO GO!

Post's Procedure Poses Perplexing Problem - -

"Still up in the air."

That was the phrase used this week to describe both literally and figuratively the condition of the building itself and the status of the situation of the proposed clubhouse on E. Parr Ave. pictured above.

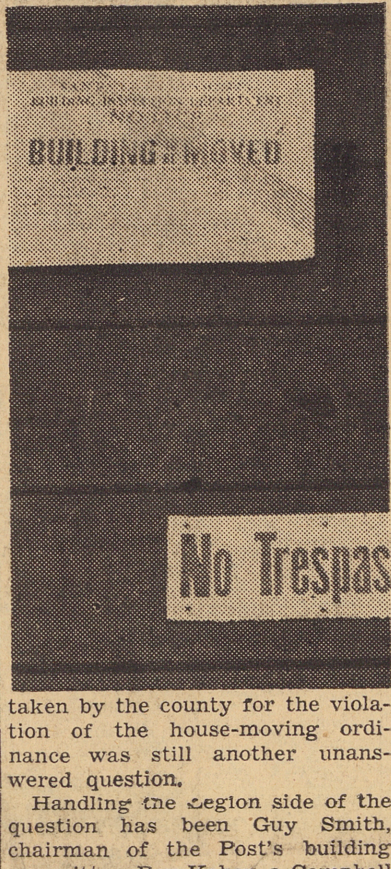
The building, containing approximately 3600 square feet, is the former San Jose Skeet and Gun clubhouse. It was moved last week by the West Valley Legion No. 158 onto property purchased by the Post last July from Frank Lavoi. The property is a three-acre parcel on E. Parr on the banks of the creek and is part of an area that is now in the process of being annexed to Campbell. At the present time, however, it is under county jurisdiction, which fact tends to confuse the confused state of affairs even more.

The Post purchased the gun clubhouse with the understanding that it had to be moved from the creek as the clubhouse was in the way of a state construction project.

The Post applied to the county building inspector's office for a permit to move the building and the property was posted to that effect; (photo on right) The clubhouse, however, was moved before the final moving permit was issued. Legion members claimed that it was a misunderstanding. They thought the posting was all that was necessary.

In the meantime, the Post had applied to the County Planning Commission for a zone change for the area (It is zoned one-family residence and agriculture), so that a clubhouse could be operated on the E. Parr location. The County Planners, aware that the area was in the process of being annexed to the City of Campbell, would not act on the request. A number of residents in the immediate area had also objected to the Legion's request.

This week the county building inspector's office informed The Press that the Legion had applied for a building permit which would allow the clubhouse to be set down on a foundation and used as a siingle-family dwelling in compliance with the present zoning. The inspector's office said a permit possibly could be issued on that basis, provided that all other requirements are met. Until the permit was granted the building must stand high and dry.



What action if any would be taken by the county for the violation of the house-moving ordinance was still another unanswered question.

Handling the Legion side of the question has been Guy Smith, chairman of the Post's building committee, Rex Kaber, a Campbell resident and adjutant of the Post and William Mattenberger, attorney.

The situation poses so many peculiar questions, officials claim, that what the final result will be is still anyone's guess.

And waiting in the wings, is the City of Campbell.

Too Many Dogs!

The City Council went to the dogs again Monday night.

With Mayor John M. Chargin voting "no", the Council indefinitely deferred any action on a proposed new dog ordinance, suggested by the county. Mayor Chargin thought it should be deferred to some specific date but his fellow councilmen overruled him.

Then doggedly the Council referred to City Attorney Joseph Bonacina the complaint of Leo J. Bihn, 161 W. Catalpa Lane. Bihn called the attention by letter of the Council to a nuisance that he claimed had been brought by a new neighbor on Cherry Lane, to wit, dogs.

"Altogether too many dogs are kept on property adjoining my home," he wrote, "and in violation of the law. The noises and odors constitute a degradation of the place for human habitation."

Residents Protest Speeding

Recognizing that the residents of Fewtrell Drive had a right to be gravely concerned over the hazardous traffic conditions that now exist on their street, the City Council Monday night agreed to do everything within the limited means of the City to combat the problem.

However, Council members warned the residents that constant police patroling of the street by the police was an impossible task for the small Campbell force.

Chief Robert Locke was directed to have spot checks made to see if the speeding on the street could be cut down and LeRoy Black, street superintendent, was ordered to remove all loose gravel from the pavement. The gravel, it was explained by the protesting residents added to the danger from the speeding cars.

The Council also ordered a street sign erected which would warn motorists that traffic laws in Campbell were being strictly enforced.

Three housewives and mothers were present at the Council meeting to add their personal pleas to the written petition that had been presented. Present were Mrs. Tyke Cowan, 1127 Fewtrell, Mrs Pete Aiello, 1171 Fewtrell and Mrs. Jack Schanck, 1158 Fewtrell.

The petition was signed by 25 residents of the street who claimed that, since the street was opened up, it had become increasly dangerous. The thoroughfare had previously been a dead end street but when it was cut through into Midway Ave. because of the development of a subdivision it developed into a shortcut for many workers returning home. The worst danger exists between 45:30 and 6:00 p. m., the petitioners claimed.

The letter explained that there were 40 children living on the street with 30 of them under the age of 10.

"We home-owners have been fearful of the safety of our children," the letter stated, "ever since the street was opened.

"Trucks and cars now travel at excessive speeds on the street, especially between 4:30 and 6. We live in constant fear of our children's lives. The excess gravel adds to the danger from speeding cars. Constant police patrol between 4:30 and 6 plus spot patrolling a few times per day should greatly reduce this hazard'"

Moreland Schools "Evacuate" Tomorrow

It will be Evacuation Day in the Moreland School District tomorrow.

Approximately 1660 students from the four schools in the Moreland School District will participate in a mass evacuation as a civil defense training measure tomorrow (Friday) afternoon staring at 1:30, Mrs. Gussie Baker, superintendent, announced this week.

Originally scheduled for Monday afternoon, the evacuation was postponed until Friday afternoon because of weather conditions. All members of the faculty, administration and custodial staffs will assist in directing the operation in which the parents of the youngsters will play an active part.

Mrs. Baker explained that the main objective of the test is to establish a time-schedule for a mass evacuation should a real disaster ever strike. She said that the parents of students below the seventh and eighth grade level will call for their children at the school and accompany them home. No buses will be used in the evacuation but a bus will be stationed at each school for emergency use only.

Parents have been requested not to leave their homes until 1:30 p.m. They will come to the school and pick up their youngsters in their respective classrooms. The pupils will be released to them by the teachers in charge of each room. The time of arrival of the parents, time of pick-up and time of arrival home will all be tabulated by the district. Mrs. Baker expects the entire operation to be completed by 3 p.m. The children will not return to school.

Five police vehicles will patrol the area during the evacuation to add traffic protection for the youngsters and their parents as they move to their homes. The seventh and eighth graders will be "on their own" and the teachers of these grades will act as crossing guards at the main intersections.

Streets used mainly will include Saratoga Ave., Campbell Ave., San Tomas Road, Payne Ave. and Williams Road. There will be two motorcycle police from San Jose, two county sheriff cars and one California Highway Patrol car in the area. An airplane will hover over the area also from which vantage point pictures will be taken of the project.

The four schools of the district taking part are Moreland School, at Saratoga and Payne avenues; Strawberry Park School, Camina Escuela and Blackford; El Quito Park School, 18750 Bucknall Road and Bucknall School, Bucknall Road at San Tomas Aquino Road.

Double Murder-Suicide Shocks Entire Community of Campbell

This community was slowly recovering this week from one of its worst shocks in its local history. Late last Thursday afternoon a tragic double-murder- and suicide had rocked it to its very foundation.

Victims of the triple slaying were James B. Arends, his wife, Wanda and his wife's sister, Miss Mary Lou Alfrey.

The double-murder-suicide occurred in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Arends at 12460 Brook Glen Drive in the Saratoga area, just a few miles west of Campbell. The couple had moved into their new home shortly after they were married last September.

The two women were shot by Arends, who then turned the gun on himself. A total of nine shells were fired from the .38 caliber revolver that the former Campbell City councilman had purchased at a local store just prior to the shooting.

Arends, who was 33 years of age, was elected councilman when the city was first incorporated in 1952. He was re-elected in 1954 to serve for four years but resigned after his marriage when he moved outside the city limits. With his brother Emerson (Doc) he was a partner in the Campbell Lumber Co.

Private funeral services were held for the former councilman on Saturday afternoon at the Campbell Memorial Chapel while services for the two sisters took place at the First Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon. The sisters were buried in Whittier, Calif. They are survived by their father, Chalmer Alfrey of San Gabriel and two brothers, H. Donald Alfrey of Long Beach and Edward Alfrey of Reseda.

Mrs. Arends is also survived by four children of a previous marriage, Sandra, 10, Katherine, 8, David, 6; Steven, 4, who are now with their father, Carl W. Brown. Both Mrs. Arends, 30, and her sister, Mary, 31, were natives of Oklahoma. Miss Alfrey was a registered nurse at the Children's Hospital in Oakland.

The triple tragedy took place in the master bedroom of the new home and, according to the sheriff's report, probably stemmed from the fact that the five-month marriage was apparently about to break up. Mrs. Arends had reportedly told her husband she was leaving him.

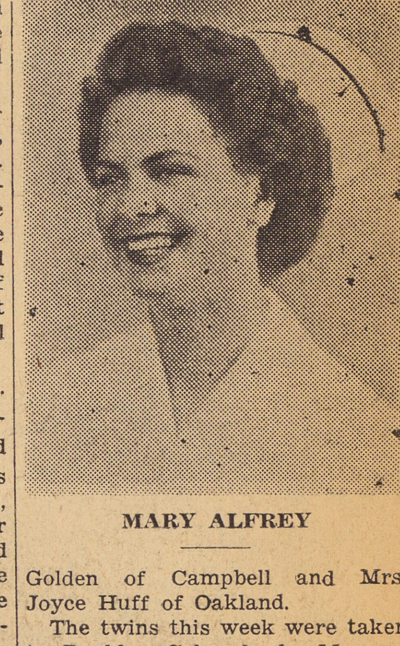
WANDA ARENDS

Two other women, Mrs. Evelyn Wood, 411 N. Carlyn Ave., Campbell, a close friend of Mrs. Arends and Mrs. Helen McQuiggan, of San Jose, a family friend, and seven children were present when the shooting started. The children were taken from the house by Mrs. Wood. They included Arend's 10-year old twin daughters by his first wife, the four children of Mrs. Arends and a child of Mrs. Woods.

Campbell police officers, Donald Burr and Richard Mayne, were the first to reach the scene. The call had come to the sheriff's office but Burr and Mayne on patrol in Campbell were the closest to the scene. The two local officers broke down the door of the house. At the time it was not known whether Arends' was still alive.

Arends was born in Huron, S. Dak., was graduated from Fremont High School, Sunnyvale and attended San Jose State. His father, the late James B. Arends, purchased the Campbell Lumber Co. in 1942 and he was associated in the business from that date. He served in the Navy during the World War II. His brother, Emerson, has been associated with the lumber company since 1949.

Arends is survived, in addition to his brother and twin daughters, Gretchen and Evelyn, by his mother, Mrs. Laura Arends of San Jose and two sisters, Mrs. Janice



MARY ALFREY

Golden of Campbell and Mrs. Joyce Huff of Oakland.

The twins this week were taken to Boulder, Colorado, by Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Coleman of that city. Mrs. Coleman is a sister of Mrs. Evelyn Arends who died last month. Coleman is an attorney in Boulder and they have filed guardianship papers for the girls.

Pistol Sale Costs Cefalu $10 Fine

Tony Cefalu, part-owner of Campbell Liquors and Sporting Goods, 350 E. Campbell, pleaded guilty Monday to violating the law regulating the sale of pistols and was fined $10 and placed on 30 days probation.

The gun in question was purchased by James B. Arends last Thursday afternoon and was used in a double murder and suicide a half hour after the sale. The state penal code stipulates a waiting period of approximately 72 hours must take place between the application and the sale of a pistol.

The misdemeanor complaint was filed by Chief of Police Robert J. Locke of Campbell. The gun was sold by Bert Harris, a clerk in the store, but Cefalu approved the sale. The fine was levied by Judge Paul W. Crawford, of the Los Gatos-Saratoga-Campbell Judicial District.

Crash Takes Lives Of Campbell Men

A two-car, head-on crash in Mountain View took the lives of two Campbell men last Saturday evening. The accident occurred about 9:20.

Fatally injured were Kenneth Fredieu of 602 Kenneth Avenue, manager of the Five Spot Drive-In, and his brother-in-law, Lester LeRoy Ridley, of 1351 Pollard Road, an employee of Westinghouse.

According to California Highway Patrol officers, a preliminary investigation indicated the southbound car in which the two men were riding swerved across the center white line on Grant Road near Eunice in Mountain View and smashed into a northbound car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Ingebrigtsen of Mountain View and their 4 year old son, Nils. All the Ingebrigtsens are listed in critical condition.

Fredieu is survived by his widow, Joanne, and a small daughter, Connie Joanne; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferdieu of Oklahoma; and a brother, Bobbie Fredieu, of Forth Worth, Texas.

Services will be held today, February 14 at the Chapel of Flowers 900 S. Second Street, San Jose. at 2:00 p.m. Interment will be in Santa Clara City Cemetery.

Sixth Dist. CCPT, SJS to Present Weekly TV Series

Mrs. Louis R. Forner, president of the Sixth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, has announced that in cooperation with San Jose State College a 13-week series of programs would be presented on Channel 11, KNTV, San Jose, beginning March 14 at 4 p.m. The announcement was made at the Founders' Day meeting of the Sixth District held recently in Mountain View.

Guest speaker was Sheriff Mel Hawley who discussed the location of the proposed new jail farm. Hawley said a final definite site for the farm has not been settled and that most people are against locating it near them but no one has a constructive suggestion as to where it should be. He added that the main thing is to agree upon a site and get started now.

Touching briefly on maintenance, Hawley said the cost per person in jail now is $2.50 per day, whereas, if and when the new jail farm is built, the cost would be greatly lowered.

A luncheon honoring past presidents of the district followed the business meeting with the Founders' Day program presented by Mrs. T. C. Binkley.

Mrs. Bruce Jones, communication director, and Mrs. Karl Weterstrom, safety chairman, were recipients of Honorary Life Membership Awards for their outstanding work and contributions towards child welfare. Mrs. Leonard Merritt, first vice-president, made the presentations.

Reports Shows Need Of Social Service

The annual report for the year 1956 of Catholic Social Service of Santa Clara County, a red feather agency, shows a continued increase in demand for the agency's services, particularly in the field of family counseling and child welfare.

In releasing the details of the report, Mrs. Helen Hansen, executive secretary of Catholic Social Service, said that the increase in the number of interviews held by the agency's staff in the past two years indicated a wider acceptance of the value of the agency's services throughout the county, and a greater willingness on the part of the community to seek the aid of professional advice

The letter ended with the fervent plea:

"Please help us", followed by the signatures of the 25 residents.

The representatives from the street said they appreciated the Council's problems and were greatly appreciative of the action the City Dads took.

Councilman Richard Morton wryly added that the residents were providing excellent ammunition for Chief Locke to request additional members for the police force come budget time and he wondered if the residents would be willing to stand for the added taxes that this would entail.

Vivian Faulkner Takes Staff Job

The Campbell Press has a new women's editor, but she really isn't new to the paper, having served for more than year in the same capacity from August 1954 to September 1955.

Mrs. Vivian Faulkner has replaced Mrs. Alys Riley on the staff of The Press. Mrs. Riley, who served as women's editor from September 1955, has resigned to accept a position with IBM. Mrs. Riley, incidentally, took the place of Mrs. Faulkner back in September 1955.

Mrs. Faulkner, who has lived at 214 Rosemary Lane in Campbell for the past 14 years, is the mother of two boys and two girls. Her husband, Lawrence, has operated a garage in San Jose for a number of years. One of the Faulkner's boys, Dick, is a student at San Jose State while Eddie is in the U. S. Army in Panama. Daughter Joan is a student at Campbell High School while Linda, the youngest, attends Campbell Grammar.

Mrs. Faulkner, who has been employed on a part-time basis at the Campbell Chamber of Commerce since March, 1956, will continue with her C. of C. position. Before taking the Chamber of Commerce job, the new women's editor was employed by the Jorgensen Advertising Agency in San Jose.

Gubser Battles Mailing Abuse

Congressman Charles S. Gubser's war against abusive use of the Congressional free mailing privilege has entered a new phase. Gubser, a former Member of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, re-introduced his bill which would prohibit Members of Congress from mailing in excess of five hundred (500) identical pieces of mail to recipients outside the districts which they represent.

Gubser said, "A great deal of jusifiable criticism has been levied against Members of Congress for blanket mailings of speeches and other material outside a Congressman's own district.

"Such a practice not only makes the Congress suspect of using the free mailing privilege for political purposes, it costs the taxpayers money.

ON CAPITOL HILL

A fast finish often wins a foot race when spectators have decided that a certain runner just doesn't have a chance.

Administration of the Refugee Relief Act, passed in the 83rd Congress to provide a haven for fugitives from Communism, was criticized most severely during the last political campaign. Many Campaign orators hinted that action was far too slow and that this great psychological weapon against Communism was not being fully utilized. The final figures submitted after the Act expired on December 31st prove that the administrators really came up with a fast finish.

Of all the quotas allowed under the Act, only three remained unfilled: 38,662 Germans living in Germany and Austria availed themselves of Refugee Relief Act visas out of the 55,000 authorized. This was because Western Germany is doing such a splendid job of placing refugees in employment,, and the expanding economy of West Germany has enticed many to remain there. Dutch refugees also failed to come to the United States in the numbers authorized because their own economy proved so attractive. Smallest unused quota was for Europeans living in Asia.

The largest number admitted under the Act were those of Italian Ethnic origin with 60,000 Italians gaining admission to the United States; Ethnic Germans were second; and escapees from behind the Iron Curtain in Germany and Austria were third with 35,000 coming here for permanent residence. Four thousand refugee orphans were adopted by United States citizens and were granted entry through administration of this oft-maligned act. Three thousand Asians, two thousand Chinese and two thousand Palestinians also found new homes in the United States.

All told almost 200,000 victims of Communist expansion are today experiencing the freedom of democracy because Congress, at the President's request, saw fit to open our shores to them. A fast finish has won universal acclaim for a very controversial piece of legislation and has also given us a great propaganda victory in the cold war against Communism.

SPORTS IN CAMPBELL

Campbell Cagers Hold Onto Second Place in League

By Richard Ferguson

Hot on the trail of the league leading Fremont Indians, the Bucs from Campbell handed the outclassed Sunnyvale cagers a sound thumping 65-45 in Campbell last Friday evening. Campbell now has a league record of 6-1.

The long road up is getting rougher for the Bucs as they host three of the toughest teams in the near future. Santa Clara will encounter the Bucs on the Panthers court tomorrow night at 7:30. February 21 will see the Bucs facing James Lick at Campbell with the final game of the season for the Bucs with Mountain View on the Eagles court, March 1.

The Campbell-Sunnyvale tilt was a hotly contested game even though the score was rather one sided. Tempers flared in the fourth quarter which resulted in the expulsion of a player from each squad. Campbell started off fast boosting the score to 31-20 at half-time. Second string players saw considerable action in the third and fourth quarters and kept up the torrid pace set by their predecessors. Ahead 50-31 at the third canto stop the Bucs relaxed a little and the Jets scored the same number of points but could not take the commanding lead away from the Bucs.

Roger Almquist led his teammates in scoring with 16 points and played his usual fine defensive game. John Kriewall and Gene Andres hit the net on some fine tip-ins and jump shots to end the game with 12 counters apiece.

Martin for Sunnyvale led all scorers in the encounter with 24 markers on some fantastic outside jump shots.

Height again proved the downfall of the little Bucs as they met defeat at the hands of the little Jets 42-32 in the preliminary contest. Ben Lujan led the Buc scorers with 10 points.

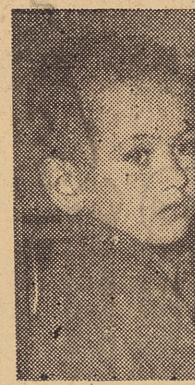
LOW DOWN ON SPORTS



By Marvin Moore

Santa Clara Takes San Jose State

Santa Clara came through with a 67-59 win over San Jose State in a tightly fought contest. State played heads-up basketball especially in the first half, but Santa Clara's experience brought them out on top.

California 62—Oregon State 51

California took its eighth straight victory in the PCC with an easy win over Oregon State. This made a double win over Oregon State who made California go into two overtimes before taking them in the first game.

Stanford 80—Washington State 62

The Stanford Indians really scalped the Cougars in this contest. Stanford was really sharp hitting better than 52 percent from the floor.

Midgets

Shorty Templeman of Seattle won the 100 lap midget race in track record time at the San Jose Speedway. Templeman went the distance in 28 minutes 22.87 seconds. The record set last year by Johnny Boyd of Fresno was 28 minutes 35.00 seconds.

Menlo-Atherton Downs Campbell

Overtime jitters proved fatal to the Buccaneers as they met defeat at the hands of the Menlo-Atherton Bears 50-42 on the winners court Tuesday afternoon. But Campbell's league standing was not at stake in the non-league tilt.

Neither team played the game it could have as the first half scoring shows. Campbell led at the first quarter stop 11-8 and was also ahead 19-17 at the half-time. From that point on the two teams played on somewhat of an even keel with the score being tied up quite a few times. At the end of the regulation time limit the score was knotted at 40-40 with the Bucs Gene Bowen dropping in the last second bucket to keep the hopes of the Campbell rooters alive.

Overtime proved fatal to the Bucs as they were waxed by the hot shooting Bears who hit five shots to the Bucs 1 to walk away with the game.

Roger Almquist again cleared the boards well and sank 6 field goals to lead his teammates in scoring with 16 markers. Gene Andres and John Kriewall cleared the boards on rebounds and played a fine defensive game as did all their teammates.

In the preliminary game the little Bucs surprised a cocky Bear five 41- 345 behind the 14 point effort of Ben Lujan. Menlo thought they had the game in the bag from the start but the Bucs startled them out of their shoes with the fast break attack scoring at least 20 points on a fast break set up.

JV's, JB's Split In Willow Glen Return Battle

Campbell High JV basketball team gained revenge over Willow Glen Monday by defeating the latter 42 to 38. In the previous match, Willow Glen drubbed the Bucs 44 to 12.

The Jayvees started fast and at one point in the first half led by the score of 28 to 5. However, Willow Glen showed remarkable accuracy on the foul line and the Buc lead dwindled to the final four point spread.

High man for the game was Richards of Campbell, followed by Rumbough with 12.

The Buc JB's were waxed by the score of 38 to 22 by the Willow Glen JB's. They trailed by the score of 16 to 7 at the half; then scored only 3 points in the third quarter to fall farther behind. Johnson was high for the Bucs with 5 points.

Extension Clubs Meet in Campbell

A county-wide meeting of the Santa Clara County Agriculture Home and Extension Clubs was held in Campbell for the first time last Tuesday at the Congregational Church.

The affair began at 10:00 with Mrs. P. D. Boothe, county chairman, conducting the business meeting and introducing the new Home Advisor, Mrs. Selma Lyda, formerly of San Bernardino County. Guest speaker was Mrs. Betty Hearn who gave an illustrated talk on 4H activities.

The purpose of the Home Advisors is to give clubs all the latest information on homemaking received from the University of California laboratories. Clubs meet once a month; county-wide meetings are held four times a year and are open to anyone interested in homemaking.

Table decor followed a patriotic theme in honor of Lincoln's birthday. Tiny rail fences, decorated with red, white and blue flowers were placed down the center of the tables.

Hostesses for the meeting were clubs of the Western Zone, comprising Cambrian Park, Monte Linda, Almaden and Redwood Estates.

Installation Has Oriental Flair

An oriental atmosphere was given installation of officers when Sequoia Sewing Circle of Netops Council No. 247 held its annual Chinese dinner at the Shanghi Cafe February 6th.

Mrs. Eugene Hodges, out-going president, turned over her gavel to Mrs. Mal Dorsett, newly elected president for the ensuing year. Other officers seated were: Mesdames, Vern Helwig, vice-president; Howard Shultz, treasurer; and Darrell Hughes, secretary.

Garden Club Sees Floral Valentines

Using dried materials, Mrs. Sara Sakamoto, proprietor of a floral shop, explained and demonstrated the art of flower arranging when she appeared as guest speaker at last Wednesday's meeting of the Campbell Garden Club. Her other arrangements of particular interest at this time included Valentine floral arrangements and one suitable for new babies.

During the business session a nominating committee was selected and instructed to present a slate of officers at the next meeting. Committee members are Mesdames, John Cantoni, Robert M. Dunn, Albert Johnson, John Thompson, and Lloyd R. Brown.

Refreshments were served by the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Albert Johnson and Mrs. Gordon Taylor.

Guest speaker for the March 6 meeting will be Mrs. Marg Schmidt, of the district Conservation Board.

Dover Club Told Play Psychology

Bob Bronzan, well known coach from San Jose State College, was the featured speaker Monday night at Dover Home and School Club. The "Psychology of Children's Play Activities" was his subject. Play, for both children and adults, is a basic and natural need, he pointed out, and even more so in these tense and hectic times when people tend to ignore it.

Bronzan high-lighted the importance of play as an essential part of the school curriculum, saying it provides muscle training for physical health, acceptable outlets for natural aggressive feelings, fears, and anxities present in some degree in all youngsters, satisfaction of the human need to tempt danger or experience the adventurous, and fulfilment of the need for comradship and acceptance by one's peers.

On the program, an exhibition of various phases of judo was presented by Yosh Yoshido, judo coach from San Jose State College; Jack Barrett, music teacher; gave class demonstrations of strings, woodwinds and brass instruments. The flag salute was lead by Brownie Troop 448.

President Roy Monsen conducted the meeting.

Girl Scouts, Bluebirds, Camp Fire and Brownies volunteered their services to place materials in envelopes for the Heart Fund Drive now under way. The Drive will be climaxed with a house to house canvass on Heart Sunday, February 24. Local chairman is Mrs. Winona Clark, of Clark's Drugs, who has distributed these coid containers to retail businesses in Campbell. Shown holding the plastic hearts are, left to right, Carol Lee Collins of Troop 274, Girl Scouts; Kristy Cave of Happy Bluebirds; and Marilyn Cunha of Brownie Troop 350.

FORUM TO PRESENT FILM ON DENMARK

The colorful life of the world's oldest kingdom, Denmark and her largest island, Greenland, will be shown on the screen when the Sunday evening Community Forum brings Hjordis Kittel Parker to San Jose for a presentation of her color film, "The People of Denmark and Greenland".

Mrs. Parker, a native of Norway, is returning to the forum for a third successive time and will narrate this unique film on February 17 at 7:30 p.m. in First Methodist Church, Fifth and Santa Clara Streets

Because of her Norwegian heritage and understanding of the Scandinavian people, Mrs. Parker is able to give her audiences an unusual insight into the lives of these people. Through her previous films on Norway and Sweden, Mrs. Parker has won recognition as one of the top film lecturers in the United States, having appeared repeatedly on practically all major world-adventure film lecture series in the United States, Canada and the Hawaiian Islands. She also appears frequently on local and national television programs.

The public is invited to attend. A free-will offering will be taken.

Club Learns Word Games Help Child

Mrs. Esther Fore, teacher of Special Education classes, spoke on "Remedial Reading" at Tuesday's meeting of the Rosemary Home and School Club. Mrs. Fore explained one of the ways parents can help their children overcome reading difficulties is playing word games with them and then demonstrated points in her talk with students of Ernest Ellis' fifth grade class as the "examples".

Fifth graders taking part in the demonstration were Pat Kolstad, Gary Gibilisco, Mary Beth Leach, Douglas Lyons, Sandra Morton, Kathy Rousch.

In the absence of the president, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Marg Foster, vice-president. James Stevenson lead the salute to the flag and musical entertainment was provided by the school orchestra under the direction of Wallace Johnson.

An announcement was made that the annual Father and Son Banquet would be held next month, but the exact date was still not definite.

Dr. Rogers, professor at San Jose State College, will be guest speaker at the March 16 meeting.

Art Students' Work on Display

Art patrons of the Campbell area will have an opportunity to view work of students from Mrs. Marion Winton's art classes at Campbell High, during the month of February at Ribble's Stationery store on Campbell Avenue.

The display illustrates the first semester of work, explaining how beginning classes in art develop interest and knowledge of design.

"People are aware of color but they seldom are aware of the other elements of design," explains Mrs. Winston. The entire first semester classes worked to music as a means of creating on a class basis, the kind of emotion they wished to portray.

The pictures on display represent direction and color, two of the seven basic elements of design.

The following students have contributed to the work on display:

Joyce Bangert, Bill Battaglia, Robert Duarte, Douglas Wilson, Jeannie Clewett, Sharon Dunning, Joan Faulkner, Carolyn Ferreira, Don Harbick, Brian Murphy, Marilyn Prows, Sarah Eastwood, Carolyn Hannah, Kathryn Hinson, Beverly Lane, Ben Uyemura, Sharon Womak, and Clara Duffy.

EDITORIAL

Will You Support a City Bond Issue?

City officials who strive to do their job to the best of their ability are often stymied because they do not know just what the people desire and will pay for in the way of civic improvements.

Granted that the people generally want the very best, the question then arises if they are willing to pay for these same improvements.

This is a tough nut for the officials to crack.

It is an age-old American pastime for people to demand that their elective officials pave the streets, put in storm drains, increase the police protection and build fire stations.

Then in the next breath they demand that taxes be lowered.

That such a stunt would be an impossible achievement is generally overlooked, except by those who give the matter a little thought.

Dutch Hamann, the efficient city manager of San Jose, in a talk before the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, emphasized that progress costs money, and it is impossible to get something for nothing. He spoke of the millions that would be needed to finance the many improvements in the City of San Jose, and he said that his office was already working on the bond proposals that will be presented.

He pointed out that the need has been brought on by the tremendous growth of the area and the many industries that are being established here.

What is true in San Jose to a lesser degree is true in Campbell.

This area, whether we like it or not, is growing, and with it come all the pangs of the growing pains that are prevalent in San Jose, but on a smaller scale.

The City officials are well aware of the problems that exist. They know that the civic improvements are necessary. but they are worried whether the people in the city understand how they are to be obtained.

There is only one logical manner in which to get the storm drains, the paved streets, the fire stations and the recreational areas that are important and necessary for a community.

That way is through a bond issue . . . and a big enough one to finance an adequate program of improvements.

Logical reasoning points out that a bond issue paid back over the years to come will work less of a hardship on the taxpayers' pockebook than, if an attempt was made to finance it on a "pay-as-you-go" basis.

In the first place, it would be imposible to keep up with the need on a pay-as-you-go plan. In the second place, even if it were posible, the people who live here at the present time would be penalized through such high taxes that they couldn't enjoy the improvements, if and when they got 'em. And those who come later would benefit without shelling out any dough.

'Tain't fair.

We have been striving to find some means by which the attitude of the people who live in the City of Campbell could be made known to the City Council.

City Councilmen would like to know how the people feel on these matters. How far will they go in support of the needed bond issue, the only way that the improvements can be obtained?

Until the attitude of the people is made known the City Fathers are groping in the dark.

Campbell has possibilities and potentialities, but they must be developed, and, as Hamann says, progress costs money.

In subsequent issues, we will attempt to describe the improvement needs of the community and explain how they can be obtained.

The Press will appreciate it, and we know the City Council will also. if you will respond by letting us know that your support will be forthcoming.

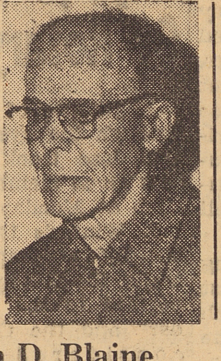
Over the Years



By John D. Blaine

While thinking of Old Settlers' Day, Campbell's annual big event, it suddenly occurred to me that we have an Old Settlers' Day tree. It is the beautiful Sequoia gigantea growing in the lawn in front of our main Grammar School.

This tree was planted by a president of our Chamber of Commerce on an old Settlers' Day when the indoor program was held in the Grammar School auditorium. The year I don't remember but the size of the tree suggests it was rather many years ago.

That a president of our Chamber of Commerce planted this tree ties in with the present arrangement of having the Chamber responsible for leading in preparations for the celebration.

This tree is of the true California "Big Tree" variety, which I believe to be the largest type of tree in the world. Specimens have been found over 300 feet tall and 1500 years old. The setting of our big tree admits of its unlimited growth, with no road problem as in the case of the Roosevelt tree.

All we need for the welfare and appreciation of this tree is a public sentiment. Pending a public sentiment I'll be sentimental about the tree myself. I don't know why my sentiment isn't as good as that of Mrs. Alice Joy Keith, the woman who got this community into a dither over the Roosevelt tree.

"Woodman, spare that tree. Touch not a single bough." In the past I've been pained to see some trimming away of lower branches with injury to its natural beauty. Of late the tree has been allowed to grow as it should. I hope this means that the woodman will stay his hand permanently. The Chamber of Commerce itself might wax poetic in opposition to the woodman.

That the Chamber is now taking the lead in the celebrations seems to me a very good thing. In the some three score years of the "day" it has experienced many ups and downs. Repeatedly it has appeared to be about done for. At the last minute somebody has poured on sentiment and brought the old feeling to a mild simmer But it takes more than a simmer to make good steam. We need sentiment plus, and that plus can be economic interest.

Obviously, Old Settlers' Day can advertise Campbell and increase business. The thousands who come to see the parade get the impression that we have a live town. With the date advanced for sake of better weather the success of the parade, with all it implies in advertising value, is the more assured.

And something else has happened to stir the blood. Never before did this community present so much printed advertising. And never before did the buying public so favorably respond.

The change from the old Campbell days is dramatic. In the old days even food store advertised chiefly from local patriotism. So they were satisfied with "cards" that went unchanged for months at a time. Sometimes the cards were unseasonable and absurd. It is very different today, and especially noticeable to an old grocer.

I make it a practice to ride my bike to various supermarkets to see how the public reacts to the advertising. I have seen a supermarket so filled with customers it was difficult to move about. I have seen a store manager stand and look at his crowd in a sort of trance. I have been reminded of the chain store founder who said, "There are no thrills of sport equal to a carefully planned sale that works."

But let me not forget that grand tree. This Old Settlers' Day tree might also be the Chamber of Commerce tree, with its possibilities of great stature and extreme age. And the responsibility of the Chamber for Old Settlers' Day will help put vitality into both.

OUT on the LIMB
George Vierhus

Our new columnist, Judge John D. Blaine, has already received fan mail. This is a pretty fair record, considering that last week was the first issue in which his column "Over the Years" appeared.

The Press has also been compplimented for obtaining such a notable addition to its staff.

Among those who commended us was Mrs. Clara Baldwin, 138 E. Rincon Ave., Mrs. Baldwin has established an enviable reputation as a writer of poetry and we were much appreciative of her nice letter to us. We thought she expressed a thought that is worthy of consideration by us all.

Hers was a short letter so we are happy to quote it here:

Congratulations for retaining Mr. Blaine as a columnist. You have made a splendid job of The Press . . . but it was entirely modern. Mr. Blaine's column is a link connecting the new city with the old Campbell.

"The column will be read avidly by the old-timers who love to reminisce. Believe it or not there are still quite a number of us left. Also the newcomers will read it for the sake of history. It will make the paper doubly popular."

Mrs. Baldwin signed it "one of the old timers". Thank you, Mrs. Baldwin, for your most welcome letter and we agree with you that Judge Blaine's column will be an important link.

—o—

We owe the good Judge an apology for an error that cropped in the front page story announcing the advent of the column. The story appeared beneath the picture of Judge Blaine and Marvin Moore, our young sports columnist.

The error wasn't really too bad, except we gypped Judge Blaine out of some 90,000 miles.

The story reported that the Judge had pedaled 10,000 miles on his bike. Actually the figure should have been 100,000. That is quite a difference.

Marvin Moore informed us this week also that we have to stop calling him our 9-year old sports columnist (His "Lowdown on Sports" has appeared regularly in The Press since last July.) It seems that Marvin has had a birthday recently.

He wants us to know that he is now 10 years old.

—o—

Some idea of the extent of the Campbell Union High School District can be gained from the fact that only one of the four students who were elected to student offices at the recent student body election had a Campbell mailing address. Two had San Jose and the other a Cupertino address.

That's about par for the course in this day of entangilng city boundaries.

Some one recenly told us that although Campbell is not exactly surrounded by the City of San Jose, one could go in any direction from Campbell and strike the city limits of San Jose. We haven't tried it but by the map it does look possible, give and take a couple of zigs and zags.

—o—

We thought LeRoy Black, street superintendent, had missed the boat last week when he installed the long-awaited stop signs at the intersection of Rincon, Cypress, Virginia and Bucknall.

The City Council had adopted an emergency traffic ordinance, after a request by the residents in that area. A subsequent traffic survey verified the need. The ordinance directed that stop signs be placed at that intersection. We thought Blackie had goofed when we noticed that he had neglected to place a stop sign on Virginia. But we rechecked the ordinance and found that it doesn't call for one there.

—o—

That's quite a complicated intersection, to say the least. You see Rincon curves right there into Virginia and then takes off again from Virginia a block or so down the street while Cypress ends at Virginia as does Bucknall. So when a car is going north on Virginia and onto Rincon it really doesn't come to the intersection at all. You just kinda keep slipping to the right and keep on going. But if one was continuing through onto Cypress from Virginia then one crosses the intersection.

We think a stop sign might help slow traffic in these cases.

Maybe there should be some sort of a right lane traffic island there.

Or maybe we have confused things enough as it is.

We thought we would have some difficulty describing that darn spot. But we didn't think it would be this tough. Maybe we should have stopped before we started.

—o—

Being a small town boy at heart, we are happy to note that the rural atmosphere has not entirely disappeared from Campbell, despite the tremendous growth of recent years.

A chicken met its death last week attempting to cross one of the city's busier streets and lay forlornly and unclaimed in the gutter for a couple of days.

Passers-by who saw it probably had to do a double-take.

Such things occur supposedly only on country roads and this was the city of Campbell.

—o—

It will be a long, long time before local residents will completely recover from the shock of Jim Arend's sucicide after his murder of his wife and sister-in-law. But time has a way of healing even the most tragic situations.

We have all read about similar tragedies occurring in other places and gave them only a cursory thought.

But having it happen so close to home and involving people one knows is an entirely different story.

If it had occurred a day earlier (on press day) we would have been forced to cover it in a fashion similiar to that of the metropolitan papers.

So there is an advantage to being a weekly newspaper after all.

As it was, we were able to give an assist on the case to one of our bigger brothers in the field. We loaned an engraving to Stanley Waldorf, San Francisco Examiner representative in San Jose. It is not often that our big brothers call on us for help or we can help 'em out.

'Olympics' Topic Of Rotary Meet

A glimpse of far-off Australia, through the eyes of Bud Winter, San Jose track and field coach, was given members of the Rotary Club at Monday's luncheon meeting. Winter's talk was based on the 1956 Olympics held in Australia. He said sports are very important to the people "down under" and the Olympice could be considered Australia's "finest hour".

Winter told a group many of the Russian athletes "froze-up" in competition because of too much pressure to win from their officials. He then related a number of amusing ways the American teams used psychology to worry Russian stars, and their methods for getting into the moods in which they gave their best performance, giving as an example Parry O'Brien, who practiced Yoga and putting shot at Russian pictures.

Chairman of the day was George Miskulin.

Diet Class Aids Heart Patients

Diet help for heart-handicapped persons is to be offered in the 1957 series of classes starting this month under sponsorship of Santa Clara County Heart Association and the San Jose Unified School District.

Santa Clara County Heart Association is one of four Bay Area Heart Associations that now sponsor Low Sodium Diet Programs, according to Raleigh Lage, M.D., Chairman of the Special Diets Committee of the California Heart Association.

Dr. Lage points out that a lower intake of the common mineral sodium is prescribed in the treatment of high blood pressure and dropsy.

"A low sodium diet," Dr. Lage continued, "often means the difference between a sedentary and an active life. And since a diet too low in sodium may be detrimental for good health, a patient must learn to estimate with accuracy the amount of sodium he or she eats every day."
